

What's happening in the Library...

The Library is Open!

FACE COVERINGS ARE REQUIRED
TO KEEP YOU SAFE

While COVID-19 precautions have changed the way some areas of the library are used, we are still here to help students in any way we can and provide spaces and resources to help you achieve success at ASUMH. There are three single-person use conference rooms that students can reserve in the library if you need a private space to study or attend a class via zoom. Desktop computers and printing are available in the library's computer lab. We also have multiple study desks (spaced appropriately) for use throughout the library.

Disposable earbuds are available on request for listening in the library. While access to the books and video shelving has been restricted to library staff only, you can still check out items. Simply tell us what item you want and we will grab it for you. For those who prefer not to come inside the library, we are offering curbside pickup!

Banned Books Week & Library Display

September 27th - October 3rd,
2020

Banned Books Week

Information about banned books is available on our Banned Books Website. If you would like to participate in banned books week by recording a short video reading a passage from your favorite banned book, we will place it on our website. If you are interested in seeing past videos, please visit our Virtual Read-out page on the website here.

Virtual Display of the month

The Escape Room: Banned Books Edition

Can you find the clues and Escape the Room?

This month we decided to do another virtual display, this one celebrating Banned Books Week and we made it interactive! Banned Books Week is all about the freedom to read and what better way to demonstrate that than to have your freedom taken away!

YOU ARE NOW LOCKED IN A ROOM, CAN YOU ESCAPE...

This Months Book Selection...

Gods of Jade and Shadow by: Silvia
Moreno-Garcia

Meeting Time: 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Meeting Date: Friday, October 2nd, 2020

Via Zoom

The Jazz Age is in full swing, but Casiopea Tun is too busy cleaning the floors of her wealthy grandfather's house to listen to any fast tunes. Nevertheless, she dreams of a life far from her dusty small town in southern Mexico. A life she can call her own.

Yet this new life seems as distant as the stars, until the day she finds a curious wooden box in her grandfather's room. She opens it—and accidentally frees the spirit of the Mayan god of death, who requests her help in recovering his throne from his treacherous brother. Failure will mean Casiopea's demise, but success could make her dreams come true.

In the company of the strangely alluring god and armed with her wits, Casiopea begins an adventure that will take her on a cross-country odyssey from the jungles of Yucatán to the bright lights of Mexico City—and deep into the darkness of the Mayan underworld.
